

The Society for Social Work Leadership in Health Care Honors our 2014 Award Recipients

November 5-8, 2014

Salt Lake Marriott Downtown at City Creek • Salt Lake
City, Utah

Ida M. Cannon Award

The inspiration for this most prestigious Society for Social Work Leadership in Health Care award, first presented in 1971, was the Ida M. Cannon, who organized the first social work department in an acute care medical setting. This award honors a national figure in health care for outstanding social work leadership in health care and to the SSWLHC. The recipient of this award must be a widely recognized leader in the field of health care social work and demonstrate the skills, qualities and ethics that made Ida Cannon successful as a pioneer for the profession of social work in a health care setting.

2014 Recipient:

Margaret Weld Meyer, MSSW, MBS, LCSW, OSW-C

Health Care Social Work Leader of the Year Award

Established in 1981, this award recognizes an exceptional member of the Society for Social Work Leadership in Health Care. This award honors a social work leader in health care who develops and implements creative and innovative ways to improve the delivery of social work services. In this context, leader refers to all social workers who are members of the SSWLHC and who have had central involvement in developing the improved delivery systems.

2014 Recipient:

Anthony Yamamoto, LCSW

Hyman J. Weiner Award

Known to many Society members and other peers around the country as “Hy,” Hyman J Weiner was a great social work leader, inspiring teacher, and thoughtful researcher who was instrumental in the advancement of the practice of social work in health care settings. This award honors an individual who typifies Hyman J. Weiner’s outstanding qualities as a teacher, scholar, advocate, change agent and humorous and compassionate person.

2014 Recipient:

Linda Brandeis, ACSW, LICSW

Eleanor Clark Award

The Eleanor Clark Award was established in 1985 as a fitting way to honor the memory of SSWLHC leader Eleanor Clark. This award honors an individual or team for the development, implementation and evaluation of a clinical or social action program that emulates Eleanor Clark’s spirit of discovery and innovation. In addition, the award seeks to promote the creative and valuable new programs throughout the health care field.

2014 Recipient:

Stephanie Johnstone, LCSW

Joan Upshaw Award

This award was established in 2014 as a fitting way to honor the memory of SSWLHC leader Joan K. Upshaw. Joan was a social work leader in health care, a longtime member of the Society and a pioneer in social work enterprise. This award honors the memory of Joan’s entrepreneurial spirit.

2014 Recipient:

Alice Kitchen, LCSW, MPA
